

BLUE RIDGE MASONRY ASSOCIATION MASONRY EDUCATION SEMINAR JAN. 12

MontgomeryCountyVA.gov

Dec. 10, 2009

Montgomery County, Virginia – The Blue Ridge Masonry Association (BRMA) will be holding an educational seminar titled ‘Sustainable Building with Masonry Framed Homes’ on Tuesday, Jan. 12. The seminar will be held at the Montgomery County Government Center, 755 Roanoke St., Christiansburg.

If you are interested in learning about building homes “built to last” through masonry framing and how building green can save money and add value to your business, this is the seminar for you. Learn the difference between structural masonry and veneer and listen to featured speakers Paul LaVane, president of the Carolina’s Concrete Masonry Association and Greg Messer, president of Palladium Homes in Raleigh, N.C.

The seminar is free and will begin with coffee and pastries during registration at 9:30 a.m. The first learning session will take place from 10 a.m. to noon, when a lunch break will be observed for an hour. The second part of the seminar will begin at 1, with adjournment and questions and answers at 3 p.m.

To register, e-mail Brad Poff at poffbs@montgomerycountyva.gov or Bill Yeager at yeagerwc@montgomerycountyva.gov. If you need further information, please call Brad or Bill at 382-5750.
