Montgomery County, Virginia – Join the Riner Volunteer Rescue Squad members for the grand opening of their independent station on July 16 from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Riner Rescue, 4309 Riner Rd., was established as an independent squad on March 14. It has operated as a satellite station of Christiansburg Rescue since 2004.

“Now that the Riner Volunteer Squad is independent, they have greater work to do,” said Montgomery County’s Emergency Services Coordinator Neal Turner. “They are providing emergency care to the Riner area, which includes Pilot, Graysontown and Childress. The new squad covers the same territory as the Riner Fire Department and often works hand-in-hand with them. The squad is charged with approximately 75 square miles of Montgomery County.”

Swing by the station’s grand opening celebration for hamburgers and hot dogs, LifeGuard 10 & 11 helicopters, children’s activities, free CPR and First Aid instruction sign-up, door prizes, raffle, vehicle extrication demonstration, ribbon cutting and more!
