Notice of Privacy Practices

Dear Patient,

As a result of the services provided by Montgomery County Fire-EMS Department (MCFEMS), we are required to provide a Notice of Privacy Practices (see below). This notice describes how medical information about you may be used and disclosed and how you can access this information. Please review it carefully. We will be filing an insurance claim (if applicable) on your behalf. If you have any questions related to your experience with us, please call our office at (540) 384-2146.

MCFEMS is required by law to maintain the privacy of certain confidential healthcare information, known as Protected Health Information (PHI), and to provide you with a notice of our legal duties and privacy practices with respect to your PHI. Town of Christiansburg is also required to abide by the terms of the version of this Notice currently in effect.

MCFEMS may use PHI for the purposes of treatment, payment, and health care operations, in most cases without your written permission.

The following are examples of how we might use your PHI:

For Treatment

This includes such things as obtaining verbal and written information about your medical condition and treatment from you as well as from others, such as doctors and nurses who give orders to allow us to provide treatment to you. We may give your PHI to other health care providers involved in your treatment, and may transfer your PHI via radio or telephone to the hospital or dispatch center.

For Payment

This includes any activities we must undertake in order to get reimbursed for the services we provide to you, including such things as submitting bills to insurance companies, making medical necessity determinations and collecting outstanding accounts.

For Healthcare Operations

This includes quality assurance activities, licensing, and training programs to ensure that our personnel meet our standards of care and follow established policies and procedures, as well as certain other management functions.

Use and Disclosure of PHI Without Your Authorization

MCFEMS is permitted to use your PHI without your written authorization, or opportunity to object, in certain situations, and unless prohibited by a more stringent state law, including:

- For the treatment, payment or health care operations activities of another health care provider who treats you;
- For health care and legal compliance activities;
- To a family member, other relative, or close personal friend or other individual involved in your care if we obtain your verbal agreement to do so or if we give you an opportunity to object to such a disclosure and you do not raise an objection, and in certain other circumstances where we are unable to obtain your agreement and believe the disclosure is in your best interests;
- To a public health authority in certain situations as required by law (such as to report abuse, neglect or domestic violence);

- For health oversight activities including audits or government investigations, inspections, disciplinary proceedings, and other administrative or judicial actions undertaken by the government (or their contractors) by law to oversee the health care system;
- For judicial and administrative proceedings as required by a court or administrative order, or in some cases in response to a subpoena or other legal process;
- For law enforcement activities in limited situations, such as when responding to a warrant;
- For military, national defense and security and other special government functions;
- To avert a serious threat to the health and safety of a person or the public at large;
- For workers' compensation purposes, and in compliance with workers' compensation laws;
- To coroners, medical examiners, and funeral directors for identifying a deceased person, determining cause of death, or carrying on their duties as authorized by law;
- If you are an organ donor, we may release health information to organizations that handle organ procurement or organ, eye or tissue transplantation or to an organ donation bank, as necessary to facilitate organ donation and transplantation;
- For research projects, but this will be subject to strict oversight and approvals;
- For substance use disorder (SUD) treatment records that are received and are protected under 42 C.F.R. Part 2 ("Part 2 Program"), we may use and disclose those records for treatment, payment, and health care operations as other describe in this notice. If we receive specific written consent that was provided to MCFEMS or another third party, we will only use and disclose information based upon the consent given. We will not use this information in any civil, criminal, administrative, or legislative proceeding, unless given written consent or by court order issued after notice to you.
- We may also use or disclose health information about you in a way that does not personally identify you or reveal who you are. Any other use or disclosure of PHI, other than those listed above will only be made with your written authorization. You may revoke your authorization at any time, in writing, except to the extent that we have already used or disclosed medical information in reliance on that authorization.

Patient Rights

As a patient, you have a number of rights with respect to your PHI, including:

The right to access, copy or inspect your PHI

This means you may inspect and copy most of the medical information about you that we maintain. You may receive a copy in paper or electronic format, as available. We will normally provide you with access to this information within 30 days of your request. We may also charge you a reasonable fee for you to copy any medical information that you have the right to access. In limited circumstances, we may deny you access to your medical information, and you may appeal certain types of denials. We have available forms to request access to your PHI and we will provide a written response if we deny you access and let you know your appeal rights. You also have the right to receive confidential communications of your PHI.

The right to amend your PHI.

You have the right to ask us to amend written medical information that we may have about you. We will generally amend your information within 60 days of your request and will notify you when we have amended the information. We are permitted by law to deny your request to amend your medical information only in certain circumstances, such as when we believe the information you have asked us to amend is correct. If you wish to request that we amend the medical information that we have about you, you should contact our privacy officer.

The right to request an accounting

You may request an accounting from us of disclosures of your medical information that we have made in the six years prior to the date of your request. You may request an accounting of information we have used or disclosed for the purpose of treatment, payment or health care operations. If you wish to request an accounting of access or whom we have shared information about you, you should contact our privacy officer.

The right to request that we restrict the uses and disclosures of your PHI.

You have the right to request that we restrict how we use and disclose your medical information that we have about you. MCFEMS is not required to agree to any restrictions you request, but any restrictions agreed to by MCFEMS in writing are binding on MCFEMS.

Right to Obtain Copy of Paper Notice on Request

This Notice is available on our website. If you would like, we will forward you this Notice by electronic mail and you may always request a paper copy of the Notice.

Your Legal Rights and Complaints

You also have the right to complain to us, or to the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services Office for Civil Rights by sending a letter to 200 Independence Avenue, S.W., Washington, D.C. 20201, calling 1-877-696-6775, or visiting www.hhs.gov/ocr/privacy/hipaa/complaints/. You will not be retaliated against in any way for filing a complaint with us or to the government. Should you have questions or complaints, please contact our privacy officer.

Revisions to the Notice

MCFEMS reserves the right to change the terms of this Notice at any time, and the changes will be effective immediately and will apply to all protected health information that we maintain. Any material changes to the Notice will be promptly posted in our facilities and published on our website. You can get a copy of the latest version of this Notice by contacting our privacy officer.
