

New River Valley Regional LEPC
May 16, 2017, 10:00AM - 12PM
Montgomery County Government Center
755 Roanoke Street Christiansburg VA

The meeting was opened at 10:02 with the Pledge of Allegiance.

Minutes of February meeting, and agenda for this meeting, were approved.

Standing Items:

1. Hazmat Incidents: Neal Turner (Montgomery Co.) reported, added one additional spill at RAAP, no major damage
2. Educational Needs & Offerings
 - JT Clark reported that NSPA is holding a Certified Healthcare Emergency Manager course in June.
 - Neal suggested that all subscribe to Lewis-Gale Montgomery's email list, especially if you need EMS continuing Ed notices.
3. Host for August Meeting: Radford University College Humanities & Behavioral Sciences (1000 Lee Hwy, Radford) new Emergency Operations Center; Dr. Stephen Owen, chair, Criminal Justice Dept.
4. New attendees introduced themselves:
 - Jason Dees, epidemiologist at NR Health;
 - Nathan Facemire, Assistant Security Manager RAAP

Old Business:

1. CBERS: health dept. tabletop exercise on water quality, May 3, briefed by Steve Woodyard, VDEQ
2. Radford Arsenal Exercise April 22: briefing by RFAAP Chief Jay Altizer: hazardous materials releases and multiple iterations of active shooter exercises.
3. NSPA healthcare facility evacuation exercise April 20; briefed by JT Clark.
4. Lewis-Gale Pulaski active shooter exercise March 16; briefed by David Linkous.

New Business:

1. Tabletop Exercise at August meeting; structure TBD
2. Board of Supervisors appointments to LEPC: Neal Turner asked for contact information on members so that the Montgomery County Board of Supervisors; all members who have not already filed information need to share contact information; please use this link to enter your information: <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/R273GJL>
3. Nathan Facemire and Chief Altizer presented BAE Chairman's Award to David Linkous and Paige Boardwine of NRV Health Department.

Program: Neal Turner presented a program on Hazardous Materials incidents in the NRV.

The meeting was adjourned at 10:56 am.