

MCPR Active Adult Policies and Information

Registration & Deadlines

- Register at our office, by mail, by phone, or online. Participants must register with the recreation department hosting the activity.
- Trips and tours list a pick-up and return time for the activity. Please note that all return times are approximate.
- We reserve the right to have program flexibility.
- A deadline is set to secure tickets and program supplies. If the minimum number of participants is not met, an activity will be cancelled.
- If an activity is full at the time of inquiry, individuals may be placed on the wait list. If a vacancy becomes available, participants will be notified.

Inclement Weather Policy

Cancellations due to weather will be made by 9 a.m. the day of the activity.

Medicine

Participants should travel with at least a 24-hour supply of medication in the event of a delay on our return due to inclement weather or other circumstance.

Refunds

For a refund, cancellations must be made by the registration deadline listed under the program description. Refunds are automatic if an activity is cancelled.

Due to the cost associated with credit card processing fees, we will no longer be able to issue refunds back to credit cards. Refunds will now be processed either by returning funds to your account for future use or via paper check, which will be issued within 10-14 business days.

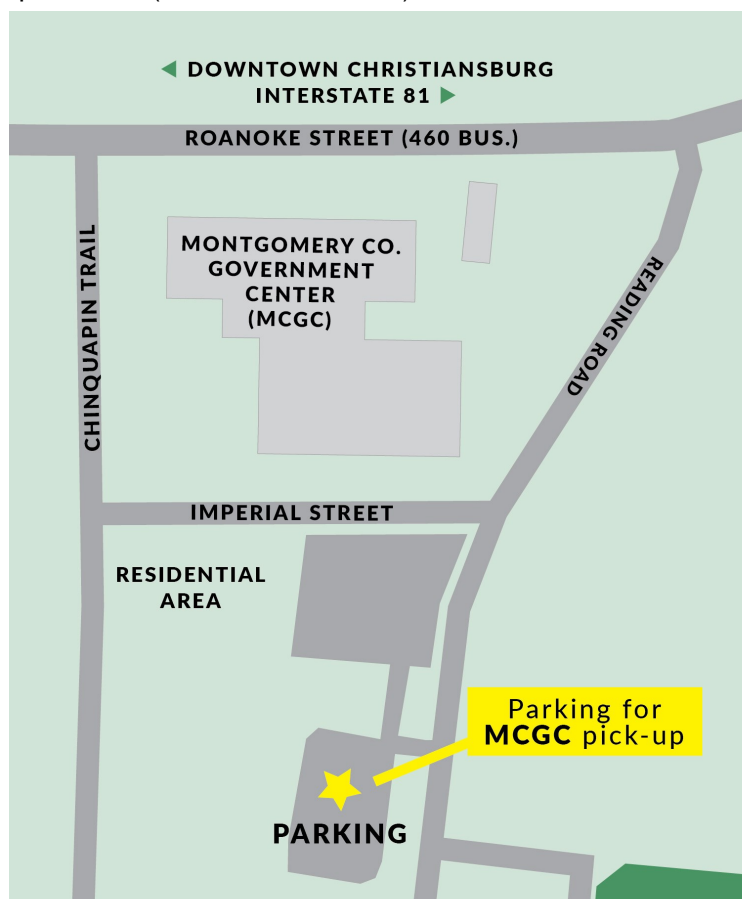

Pick-Up Location

Participants may park in designated locations at the Montgomery County Government Center (MCGC) in Christiansburg.

Please arrive at least 15 minutes before departure.

Late Arrivals: To keep the schedule on track, we cannot guarantee a delay for late arrivals. If you are not present at departure time, the trip will proceed as scheduled, and no refunds will be issued.

Parking locations are indicated on the map provided. (Note: Not to scale).

Volunteer Montgomery

Volunteer Montgomery (formerly RSVP) invites adults age 55+ to use their life experience and skills to help their neighbors in need. Volunteers serve part-time, and help through a variety of local non-profit organizations, agencies, and institutions. Enjoy rewarding assignments, personal fulfillment, and personal growth. Volunteers have control over what they do, when they do it, and how often they participate. For more information and to enroll, visit their office at 210 S. Pepper Street, Suite D in Christiansburg or go online to www.montva.com/volunteermontgomery

Volunteer Montgomery is funded by the Corporation for National and Community Service, and the Montgomery County Government.
