Montgomery County, Virginia – Montgomery County and the Town of Christiansburg are extending the deadline to July 27 to register for the second annual Montgomery-Christiansburg Citizens Academy.

Join staff members from the County and the Town to learn about the following topics:

- Government 101 – an overview of how local government works
- Economic Development, Tourism and Finance – business, travel and budgeting
- Law Enforcement – keeping our community safe
- Public Works and Public Service Authority – helping our community operate efficiently
- Libraries and Public Information – providing citizens with fun, events and information
- Planning, Zoning, GIS and Building Inspections – working together for an organized society
- Fire and Rescue – our first responders
- Parks and Recreation & Aquatics – the County and Town at play!

The Montgomery-Christiansburg Citizens Academy is open to any Montgomery County resident at least 18 years of age. It will be held on Thursdays, Aug. 2 – Sept. 27. Classes will be held from 6 to 8:30 p.m. There is a limit of 20 participants per academy – so register early!

The graduation and reception for participants will be Sept. 27 at 7:30 p.m.

To register, please fill out the attached form and return it to the Montgomery County Public Information Office, 755 Roanoke St., Suite 2G, Christiansburg, VA 24073; or email it to Montgomery County Public Information Director Ruth Richey at richeyrl@montgomerycountyva.gov.
